

---

Cantor Dan's Summer Teachings

These classes are open to members of Temple Sinai as well as others in our community, regardless of prior knowledge or experience. These classes offer a welcoming space to learn and grow.

Talmud Classes

- Beginner's Talmud Class: Sundays at 2:00 PM starting June 2nd.
- Continuing Talmud Class: Thursdays at 4:30 PM starting June 6th.

Both Talmud classes are 8 sessions with specific dates to be shared in class

Overview: Delve into the depths of the Talmud with the Beginner Talmud Class and the Continuing Talmud Class (for those who have already taken the beginning class). This class will guide you through the texts and ideas that have shaped Jewish law and philosophy. Engage in stimulating discussions, explore diverse interpretations, and connect with the wisdom of our ancestors.

*****

Jewish Music Theory Class

Sundays at 3:00 PM starting June 2nd, 4 Sessions with possibility of extending

Overview: This class will introduce you to the theoretical foundations and historical context of Jewish music. With an overview of basic music theory, we will look at different musical settings of our tradition and why people say, "Oh! That's sounds Jewish." This class is great for members & friends who want to learn more about how to read sheet music or anyone who wants to gain a greater understanding of what goes into creating music.

Space is limited, so you are encouraged to secure your spot soon

Sign up by emailing Cantor@TempleSinaiabc.org and specify which class(es) you plan to attend or with any questions

