

Rabbi Steve's Kabbalah Teachings
Saturday Mornings 9:30 AM
For More Info email Rabbi@TempleSinaiPBC.org

Every Shabbat morning at 9:30 am, before Shabbat services, Rabbi Moss delves into the profound and mystical teachings of the Zohar, a cornerstone of Jewish mystical thought. This captivating class offers a journey into the esoteric wisdom of Kabbalah, providing insights into the hidden realms of existence and the divine mysteries of the universe.

This course offers a comprehensive exploration of the Zohar's teachings. Participants will embark on an enlightening voyage through the symbolism, allegory, and spiritual insights contained within this ancient text.

Through engaging lectures, interactive discussions, and guided meditations, students will gain a deeper understanding of the spiritual principles underlying the Zohar. Topics covered may include the Tree of Life, the nature of the soul, cosmic consciousness, and the dynamics of divine energy flow.

Whether you're a seasoned scholar of Kabbalah or new to its profound teachings, this class welcomes all seekers of spiritual knowledge and offers a transformative experience for those eager to unlock the secrets of the Zohar. Join us as we journey together into the mystical depths of Jewish mysticism and discover the timeless wisdom that continues to inspire and illuminate seekers across the ages going through the Zohar page by page.